

ORANGES: Prices are on the rise. Quality on all grades are fair. These are issues industry wide.

LEMONS/LIMES: Market remains strong this week on Lemons. Rain in Mexico causing pricing to rise on Limes. Quality is suspect.

ASPARAGUS: Market has worsen with large and jumbo sizing being very tight in supplies. Standards are available. Quality is good.

CORN: Prices remain up due to early planting issues. Supply and Quality are good.

- Apples — Prices are steady. Quality is good.
- Mangoes — Prices are down. Quality is good.
- Carrots — Prices are up. Quality is good.
- Beans — Prices are down. Quality is good.
- Tomatoes — Prices are steady. Quality is good.
- Honeydew — Prices are down. Quality is good.
- Cantaloupes — Prices are down. Quality is good.
- Pineapple — Prices are steady. Quality is good.
- Potatoes — Prices are up. Quality is good.
- Berries — Prices are steady. Quality is good.
- Onion — Prices are up. Quality is good.
- Lettuce — Prices are steady. Quality is good.
- Squash — Prices are steady. Quality is good.
- Cucumbers — Prices are steady. Quality is good.
- Cabbage — Prices are steady. Quality is good.
- Brussel Sprouts — Prices remain up. Quality is good.
- Grapefruit — Prices are steady. Quality is good.
- Peppers — Prices are steady. Quality is good.
- Oranges — Prices are steady. Quality is good.
- Avocados — Prices are steady. Quality is good. Low oil content.
- Grapes — Prices are up. Quality is good.
- Yams — Prices are steady. Quality is good.
- Celery — Prices are down. Quality is good.