

TOMATOES: Florida has begun , but prices remain up. Quality is improving. Cherry tomato prices are coming down. Grape prices are steady. Vine ripe supplies are tight.

LETTUCE: Prices are steady and supplies are good as growing areas transition. Quality is good.

CORN: Yellow corn will be very short this week. Corn crops are still feeling the effect of Hurricane Irma. Supplies are tight. Prices are up and quality is fair.

BERRIES: Prices are up on all berries. Supplies remain tight until Florida starts in 2 weeks. Quality is fair.

- Brussel Sprouts— Prices are steady. Quality is good.
- Apples —Prices are steady. Quality is good. Local are in stock.
- Mangoes —Prices are up. Quality is good.
- Carrots — Prices are up. Quality is good.
- Beans — Prices are up. Quality is fair.
- Honeydew — Prices are down. Quality is good.
- Cantaloupes — Prices are down. Quality is good. .
- Pineapple — Prices are steady. Quality is good.
- Potatoes — Prices are steady. Quality is good.
- Broccoli— Prices are steady. Quality is good.
- Oranges— Prices are down. Quality is fair. Supplies are tight.
- Cauliflower— Prices are down. Quality is good.
- Onion — Prices are up. Quality is good.
- Squash— Prices are steady. Quality is good.
- Cucumbers— Prices are steady. Quality is good.
- Lemons— Prices are up. Quality is good.
- Limes— Prices are up. Quality is good.
- Cabbage— Prices are up. Quality is good.
- Grapefruit— Prices are down. Quality is excellent.
- Peppers— Prices are up. Quality is good.
- Grapes— Prices are up. Quality is good.
- Yams— Prices are steady. Quality is good.
- Celery— Prices are down. Quality is good.
- Avocado— Prices are down. Quality is good.